

Press Release

Thursday 28th June

Music for Midsummer – A Classical Success

Chelsea-based legal firm Pemberton Greenish held its second “Music for Midsummer” charity concert last Thursday at St Michael’s Church, Chester Square. Seven prize winning scholars and recent graduates from leading music conservatories in the UK and USA gave a world class programme which included Schumann’s Piano Quintet, virtuosic duos by Wieniawski and operatic arias by Gounod and Puccini. A total of £8,000 was raised for the West London Action for Children which celebrates its 90th anniversary this year. The concert was organised by a group of volunteers from the staff of Pemberton Greenish.
